1200 K St., NW
Washington, D.C. 20005

Dear Mr. Snowbarger:

I am writing to inquire on the status of your responses to questions for the record which I submitted at the November 14, 2011 Oversight and Government Reform Committee hearing on "Delphi Pension Fallout: Federal Government Picked Winners and Losers, So Who Won and Who Lost?" in Dayton, Ohio.

As you may recall, several months passed between the submission of questions to you on June 22, 2011, and my receipt of your eventual, yet insufficient responses on November 9, 2011. Please note my letter of November 16, 2011 to you addressing the inadequacy of these responses. In an effort to provide you with ample response time for my additional questions for the record, I provided you the questions, which I have enclosed for your reference, two days after the hearing itself.

Despite my attempts to facilitate timely responses to these questions, over two months, no answers have been forthcoming. I am deeply disappointed in the undue delay you continue to impose on this matter. Congress and the hardworking Americans whose tax dollars were used to unjustly reduce the pension benefits of Delphi salaried retirees in the wake of the General Motors bailout deserve answers.

To be clear, your delay is an obstruction to Congressional oversight. Without further delay, please provide answers to these retirees and the American public. I have enclosed these questions for your reference, and I expect to receive thorough answers to each of my questions by January 31, 2012.

Sincerely,
